OUTLOOK PUBLISHING CO.,
OWINGSVILLE, KY.
$1 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Appellate Judge.
To the Republicans of the Seventh Appellate District of Kentucky: I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to your action.
Election November, 1900.
Resp.,
E. C. ORRILL.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1900.

The union laborers of Chicago have boycotted the Dewey celebration. That will not make them any friends.

The two big national political conventions will be mere formal-ties and the least interesting ever held, from present indications.

British sympathizers are also good at the dynamiting game.
They blew up an ammunition factory in the Transvaal recently.

Quay was knocked out of the Senate by a majority of the Republicans. He was not the man on the right side, whatever the motive.

Gen. Roberts is no such trapper as the Boer generals. The British have been expecting that Roberts would catch a big lot of Boers in the act that it was reported he had set for them, but the enemy eluded him.

The people are still giving watchers, punch bowls and such things to Dewey, but say not a word about presenting him with the Presidency. That's the great trouble about gifts—people seldom get what they really want.

Undeterred by the practical failure of the Grange and Farmers Alliance organizations, the Kansas farmers are establishing lodges of a new order called "Knights of the Soil" to form a farmers' trust to control prices of farm products.

Gov. Pingree, of Michigan, is plunging again, as one of his State's papers would say. He says the only hope of the nation in this year's general election is in the Democratic party. Pingree has been acting with the Republican party. It's hard to tell whether or not Pingree is consciously a demagogue.

The State troops taking part in the Chicago Dewey day celebration were furnished ball cartridges in anticipation of disorders and attacks by the union labor element, which was rendered hostile to the celebration by the union leaders.
So by this time there may be a pretty hot time in the old town.

The U. S. Supreme Court may take a view of the contested Kentucky offices similar to that of that judge who said "It takes thirteen men in this court to rob a man." and set aside a palpably unjust verdict of the jury depriving a lit-igant of his property. The Court began consideration of the Gubernatorial case April 30th.

Allen D. Cole, the Maysville attorney, has renounced Democracy and joined the Republican party.
A man has to have a deep love for the true principles of Democracy to still profess to be a Democrat while at the same time he hates the scalawagism in Kentucky that is masquerading as Democracy.

The Democratic party must be getting in a bad way when the Chairman of the New York Republican convention dares to compare it to a lightning bug thus:— "The lightning bug is brilliant, but it hasn't any mind; it stumbles through existence with its headlight on behind."

Next to France the United States out the widest swath at the Paris Exposition. The American exhibitors are three times the number of those of any other European nation. The importance of that object lesson of America's supremacy in the manufacturing arts will be appreciated by the Europeans, but the remedy will not be so apparent to them.

Isn't that the Sultan of Turkey hasn't the trifling sum of $100, 000 but the precedent of paying the Government's debts that is kicking up the row. The Sultan's Port is an ancient "Pistol's platform."
"Base is the slave that pays," and if it should pay Uncle Sam, which it would do if it could be done secretly and kept quiet, every creditor in Europe would be clamoring for what is owed him by the Porte.

The Southern people are pretty well determined to eliminate the negro as a political factor. The news is that the Virginia Democrats have settled that they will call a convention to make a new constitution for the express purpose of disfranchising the negroes, perhaps by property and educational qualifications. A number of other Southern States have already accomplished the same thing, notably South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana.

Gen. Lew Wallace and Mr. Terrell, both former U. S. Ministers to Turkey, unite in giving the Sultan a certificate of good character and explain the nature of the Armenian outrages from which arise the missionary claims of which the United States government is about to force the payment. It seems that the Kurds, a wild tribe scarcely respecting the Sultan's authority, did the murder. If our Apache Indians destroyed the property of foreigners Uncle Sam would take his own way of making restitution or denying it.

Old Stand, Main Street. JAMES GILLON.

SEVERAL big Northern State Republican conventions enthusiastically endorsed the McKinley administration last week. No doubt Mc-Kinley will be nominated by acclamation, but that's no sign he will be re-elected easily, though there is no indication yet that McKinley will be made less offensive than in 1896.

SOME thousands of Philadelphia school children sent a messenger boy to Transvaal bearing their message of sympathy for the Boers in the war. Equally by the Board of Education of Windsor, Canada, are going to start two delegates to Manila bearing a similar message of sympathy for Aguinaldo from 2,500 school children. That's child's play, for sure.

The Ohio Republican convention was undoubtedly Mark Hanna's.
He was the "Big Him." If Mc-Kinley should be defeated next fall the blow would kill Hanna, yet more unexpected things than such a defeat have happened time and again.
No party can be so entrenched in power at Washington as to presume it can defy public opinion on new departures like imperialism.

TEDDY Roosevelt made a trip West on a peculiar mission, and one extraordinary in politics it being to kill the Vice Presidential boom for himself. No doubt there are Presidential aspirants who would like to cheapen Roosevelt with the nomination and dispose of him before 1901, but Teddy isn't the sort of person to play second fiddle now that his ambition is up.

CANADA suspects the Fenians or Boer sympathizers are doing her mischief because she sent troops to aid the mother country in her South African war of conquest.
Recently an attempt was made to dynamite the Welland canal, and last week fire practically wiped out the city of Hull, opposite Ottawa on the Ottawa river, and did vast damage in the capital city also.
The total loss is near $20,000,000, rendering 20,000 people homeless.

PORTO RICANS haven't decided that they are glad to be United States subjects since Congress and the Administration treated them as they did in the matter of a protective tariff. Gov. Allen went to San Juan with great pomp, his ship being escorted by several warships, but a crowd of only about 3,000 looked on, and they were not the representative citizens as a rule. No buildings were decorated and no notable enthusiasm was shown. There's nothing like imperialism!

The Irish now need to be saved from the idiotic enthusiasm of their new-made English friends, who want to dress the Irish in green in the senseless Highland costume of a short petticoat and no nether underwear about the knees. It is an Irishman who took a trip in a sedan chair with the bottom out, as he said, "not for comfort, but merely for the glory of the thing," but the kilts will hardly furnish enough glory for the Paddy of today to enjoy it to the exclusion of comfort in cold weather or in briars.

SOUTH TRIMBLE, Speaker of the House of Representatives and pride and pet of the true-blue Goebelites, is going for the 7th district Congressional nomination with a meat-axe in one hand and a corn-knife in the other. He opened at Owenton and told the boys he left the plow against his wishes to serve the people and came high getting shot at, for he was the man who made Goebel Governor. "And now, fellow tobacco-growers, you must go to raising hemp so there will be enough rope to hang all the Republicans, and when I get to Congress I'll have an appropriation made to buy the coffins," said he in a burst of fine oratory. That is what might be called pitching a campaign on the plane of intelligence befitting Gos Ute Indians or African Bushmen, whichever are the least of the human scale. If the old Ashland district was what it once was it would send him back to the plow with the admonition to stay there.

SENATOR TILLMAN is a clinker.
He is the most brutally frank man of political prominence in the nation today. His will power is amazing and strange things have happened in the world that he should become a supreme national influence yet, though sorry that day would be. He spoke right out in Congress and told how and why the Democrats in South Carolina suppressed the negro vote. He spoke last week at Ann Arbor University, Michigan, and told his Northern audience in the plainest language he could command that the negro in politics must go.

He said: "You scratch one of those college graduates who is colored under the skin and you will find the savage. His education is like a coat of paint, like his skin." Several hisses were heard overthe room. The old one-eyed terror just smiled and paid his respects to the hisses. That settled it: no more hisses nor disturbances were heard.
He said the whites by force and fraud had taken the South Carolina elections from the negroes in 1866 and have held the States ever since. "We repealed the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments," said he.

BOB BRECKINRIDGE comes into his stolen honors easily. Clifton Pratt, whom the people of Kentucky elected Attorney General, is disgusted and probably didn't have the money to spare to continue the fight for his rights, so he let the contest go by default, and Breckinridge steps in. Breckinridge was well enough reared and is old enough to know better, and he will forever be haunted by the consciousness of having secured an office by methods that are destructive of the plainest human rights, as well as of a vital principle of a republican form of government.

TOM PETTIT has practically confessed the correctness of the charges made against him years ago that he left the Democratic party and joined the Populists because he couldn't get office as a Democrat just as he would like. He met last week with a lot of other political adventurers and held what they were pleased to call a Kentucky State Populist convention, instructing delegates to support Bryan at the Sioux City national convention of the Butler-Wheeler wing of the Populist party. A person can't be a Democrat and a Populist at the same time: they are as incompatible as day and night, by very nature antithetical to each other.

MAYOR JONES, the wilhom enthusiastic Socialist of Toledo, Ohio, is reported to have concluded that hindisight is more reliable than foresight and has abandoned the socialistic experiment in his own business, giving his employees a share of the profits of his business over and above their wages that some were worthy of it and some were not, some being zealous and others indifferent, some industrious and others indolent, some bright and others dull, who the incentive to their best endeavors was held out to them. It's no new discovery, but is the same old fact of human nature that makes socialism an irresistible dream, impossible of fulfillment.

THE barn and crib of Lewis Hunter were burned down Sunday about noon. The fire was caused by Mr. Hunter's two grandsons and Owen and Hunter Clark and Raymond Denton, who were playing in the barn with matches. The barn was soon a complete loss and there was no insurance.

ALL Mrs. Allen Dearing died at her home near here Saturday, after a long illness. Interment in the Hillsboro cemetery Sunday.

ingsburg, were visiting friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

We have just heard of Will Farr's death and extend our sympathy to the bereaved family. While I presume it was no surprise, and yet death is always sad, but sure.

W. S. Estill had a letter this week from his son Robert, who is at the Hot Springs under medical treatment, stating that he was doing nicely and would be at home in a few weeks.

FLAT CREEK.
John McKinneman is very sick.
Will Young left last week for parts unknown.

Mrs. Wm. Rice is visiting in Cincinnati this week.

C. G. Whaley has been on the sick list for the past week, but is better now.

Jimmie Maxey, eldest son of J.
C. Maxey, has double pneumonia and is quite poorly.

W. B. Guggell, J. B. Darnell and Thos. S. Stephens are all very poorly with influenza.

Ed Hart and wife visited the latter's parents, on Naylor, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. W. B. Guggell took a re-lapse with influenza and is quite poorly with pneumonia.

Miss Edna Jones, of Whistle fork, was a guest of Miss Annie Bailey Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Fannie Hamilton, of Prickly Ash, was the guest of friends and relatives here several days last week.

A little child of T. J. Bailey and wife, of Forge Hill, was buried at the old lower White Oak graveyard Thursday.

A. T. Jones, wife and children, of Prickly Ash, were the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Ruth Jones, here Saturday night and Sunday.

Isaac W. Jones went to Lexington Friday, he says, to see his cousins J. L. Darnell, H. B. Anderson and J. E. Jones, but, now, I fear, he won't see them there some stronger attraction?

Upper Prickly Ash.
James P. Hamilton was in Mt.
Sterling Saturday on business.

Mrs. R. F. Shront and son Alby were in Mt. Sterling Saturday.

E. S. Hamilton sold a saddle mare to Sam Latham for $85.

R. L. Stone was in Nicholas Co.
Friday and Saturday on business.

Almanzo Stone visited relatives in Montgomery Co. first of the week.

Ryan and family, at Reynoldsburg, Friday and Saturday.

Almanzo Stone sold a short yearling steer to James Peters for $18 and a fat heifer to O. C. Harris for $23.

HILLSBORO.
E. D. Harrison, of Morehead, was here Monday and Tuesday.

Sam F. Shields is able to be out again, after seven weeks of confinement with fever.

Rev. J. W. Gardner attended the funeral of his mother, at Boyd, Harrison county, last week.

Mrs. Mota Paris and Mrs. Scott Moody attended the funeral of the former's husband at Owingsville Tuesday.

A horse driven by Mrs. Luther Hawkins ran off with her Saturday evening, threw her out and bruised her very much.

CROOKS.
Sam Hughes sold some hogs to Johnnie Johnson at $1, and bought some corn of Mr. Johnson at $3 per barrel.

Martin Hart and Cole Barnes have returned from Virginia.

Clayton Howell and P. Howell were here last week on business.

The sick are no better. Uncle Shelby Carpenter is very poorly.

The corn-planter can be heard in almost every hollow here this week.

Fire got out on Fritz Carmichael's place last week and burnt up about 80 panels of fence.

Tobacco plants in this section are small for the time of year, but a large crop of the weed will be cultivated around here.

Mrs. Ella Hamilton and children, of Montgomery county, visited her brother Worth Goodpastor and family, near here, last week.

MOORE'S FERRY.
Elder B. H. Ross will preach at Hedrick's next Sunday.

Miss Dollie Reeves, of Waco, Nebraska, is visiting relatives here.

John W. Hobbs, age 87, died on April 25th and was buried at Hedrick's next day.

L. T. McLaughlin and daughter, Miss Bertha, of Midland, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. Stoner and wife, of Salt Lick, visited their daughter, Mrs.
W. R. Razor, Saturday night and Sunday.

Geo. W. Shront, of west of Owingsville, visited his mother, Mrs.
Anna Shront, Wednesday night of last week.

Mrs. Parthena Shront, widow of Dudley Shront, died April 28th and was buried at Fairview in Fleming county Sunday.

Mrs. Alvin Hart and daughter, Miss Elva, of Roe's Run, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Anna Shront, Sunday.

Reuben McLain, Uncle Jimmie McLain, Mrs. J. C. Atchison, Will E. Flood, Nora Flood and Clyde Shront are all on the sick list.
There is scarcely a family but some member of it is down sick, and there are not enough well people to wait on the sick.

GRAVES.
We are needing rain very badly.
Mrs. Sam Shultz has 165 young chickens.

There seems to be an epidemic of mad dogs around here.

Ed Warren and family, of Licking Valley, visited the family of George Garner Saturday night and Sunday.

John Tineber, wife and little daughter, of Prickly Ash, were guests of the family of Will Craig Sunday.

Leslie Sneedgar, of near Judy, came home Saturday to see his mother. He found her very much improved.

Gardens are coming up well; sweet potatoes and tomatoes ready to set out, but too cold to put them out.

Ed Wright and family, of Licking Valley, were guests of Chris Garner and wife Saturday night and Sunday.

James Toy, wife and children Orville and Minnie, of near Wyoming, were guests of the family of Sam Shultz Sunday.

Mrs. Minerva Shultz, of Roe's Run, is at the bedside of Mrs.
George Garner, who is very poorly with la grippe. Dr. Frank Wells is attending physician.

Odessa.
H. A. (Pete) Oursler visited at J. T. Guggell's several days last week.

C. G. Whaley has been on the
better now.

Jimmie Maxey, eldest son of J.
C. Maxey, has double pneumonia
and is quite poorly.

W. B. Guggell, J. B. Darnell and
poorly with influenza.

Ed Hart and wife visited the
latter's parents, on Naylor, Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. W. B. Guggell took a re-
poorly with pneumonia.

Isaac W. Jones went to Lexington Friday, he says, to see his
cousins J. L. Darnell, H. B. Anderson and J. E. Jones, but, now, I fear, he won't see them there some
stronger attraction?

Bro. B. F. Parker preached at White Oak Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Kerns lost by death the only cow she had last Wednesday; supposed the cause was from eating red clover, though the clover was short and it was after 11 o'clock a. m. when she went on the clover and was driven out at once and was dead in less than an hour.

J. R. Jones some weeks ago received a very interesting letter type-written from his old friend Wm. E. Estill, who is now in the type-writing business in Nebraska.
He makes many inquiries of his comrades and members of the Isaac Walton club. It was a very lengthy letter, and all who have seen it pronounce it the cleanest and most complete piece of type work they ever saw.

Stepstone.
We need rain and need it badly.
